

PTSO PNC VOLUNTEERS WORK HARD FOR THE MONEY!

If you are as old as I am, I'm sure you remember the 80's Donna Summer hit song 'She Works Hard for the Money'.

And that is exactly what we did at the PNC Arts Center this year. With 8 concerts on our schedule, the CNHS PTSO PNC volunteers worked very hard and put in many hours to raise funds for Project Graduation. As we sold the food and drink at the main concession stands, we enjoyed the sounds of Tony Orlando, Toby Keith, No Doubt, Incubus, Crosby Stills & Nash, Loggins & Messina, The Killers and Neil Sedaka.

After a record breaking year last year, our hopes were high for this season. The good news is that we were able to work a high of 8 concerts but the bad news was that due to the poor economy, tickets sales were lower than usual and concert goers that attended bought less food and drink than in previous years. Even so, we were able to raise $6,285.00 for Project Graduation this year and had a lot of fun in the process. Hats off to the following volunteers who committed their time and energy to support CNHS PTSO and Project Graduation this season:

Roberta Berdel, Sandra Bullock, Beth Burke, Nancy Cavaliere, Sue Connery, Debbie DeDea, Carol Donatelli, Georgette Fitzgerald, Margaret Franklin, Caroline Friedman, Kelly Gill, Ellen Hannen, Cathy Hoffbrauer, Madeleine Holland, Denise Horneck, John Irwin, Lisa Knauf, Al Knipfing, Felicia LaTrenta, Lucy Lennox, Michele Lewski, Jill Margolis, Hilda Martinez, Tery Michaud, Carol Morton, Erin & John Mullooly, Kathy Rodman, Jo Romano, Ellen Shakespeare, Deanne Sheehan, Vicki Sherman, Donna & Frank Sikorskis, Teresa St. Angelo and Mike Spinella.

For those of you who may be considering being a part of this volunteer group for next year, here's what you can expect:

A mandatory 2 hour training session (good for 3 years!)

Long hours on your feet.

Many laughs and a chance to work with and meet some fun people.

Hard work for a great cause – Project Graduation!

If you are interested and are willing to be a part of this team and commit to work at least 2-3 concerts, check off that you'd like to volunteer for the PNC concerts in the PTSO membership packet you received in the mail, sign up on the website or shoot me an email. You will be contacted in the spring for training. It's a wonderful opportunity to meet other CNHS parents who want to do their part to support the PTSO and Project Graduation.

Respectively Submitted,
